

The diagram illustrates the construction of a garment, possibly a long-sleeved top or dress, using various pattern pieces. The pieces are labeled with sizes: XL, L, M, and S. The diagram is oriented vertically, with the top of the garment at the top of the page.

Key components and labels include:

- Top Section: Features a large piece labeled "XL" and several smaller pieces labeled "L" and "M".
- Body Section: Includes a large piece labeled "XL" and several smaller pieces labeled "L" and "M".
- Sleeve Section: Shows a large piece labeled "XL" and several smaller pieces labeled "L" and "M".
- Bottom Section: Features a large piece labeled "XL" and several smaller pieces labeled "L" and "M".

The diagram uses a color-coded system to distinguish between different pieces: light blue for the main body, light green for the sleeves, and light orange for the bottom section. The pieces are arranged to show how they fit together, with some pieces having notches and others having corresponding tabs.
