

The floor plan is a detailed architectural drawing of a building. It features a central corridor system that branches out into various rooms. The rooms are labeled with letters and numbers, indicating different functional areas. The plan is divided into several sections, with rooms of varying sizes and shapes. The layout is complex, with many small rooms and a large central hall. The plan is oriented with a north arrow pointing towards the top right.